

Anna's Word Challenge

I love words. I like the way they slide over my lips. I like to scramble up my name and try to make new words from the letters.

Here are all the letters in my big, long name.

Can you find new words just using these letters? Here are a few to get you started.

If you wish, send your total number of found words and your favorite found words to my friend, Paddy Eger at Kids Connect. She'll put them on the Anna section of her website: <https://paddyeger.com/blog/annamak/connect/>. You can see mine there!
