

Ways to Focus Your Group

- Come to the group prepared to lead the task.
- State the goal of the task clearly.
- Set clear expectations and limits then stick to them.
- Use group dynamics to maintain control of the group.
- Create an action plan for disruptive students.
- Compliment desired behavior and quality work.
- Use rewards sparingly.
- Keep the group activity focused.
- Respect student answers.
- Monitor student progress and adjust to support individual needs.
- Keep track of the allotted time.
- End all groups with positive actions.